

BRADLEY ITEMS

Lysle Hazen and brothers are up at DeHaven, where they will remain for a few weeks, where they have considerable corn to gather.

Friends and relatives have been looking for some time to see the old boy "Lysle Bradley" back again from Germany, as he promised to be back for Christmas, but news received by his father and mother report that he is doing so nicely and likes Germany so well, also the sauer kraut and limburger, that he will remain there as long as the Army of Occupation is kept there. Lysle has been in Germany for a long time. He attended an agricultural school and completed the course and was later appointed instructor in the school. He also is foreman of a large dairy farm. We are all disappointed to hear that he will not be with us as soon as we expected, but are glad to know that he is making good.

Mr. Dave Livingston of Solano was a Bradley visitor Friday.

Paul Kingsbury, Miss Coulter, Miss Maude Kern and other young folks were out in the Bradley neighborhood Saturday.

W. R. Bradley is hauling his wheat to market this week. He is delivering load after load as fast as he can get haulers.

R. B. Smith, Phil Krosneck and the Hazen boys are wheat haulers this week.

Mrs. Ralph Hazen gave a fine turkey dinner for all her relatives which numbered 15 or 20 last Thursday.

Mother Bradley also gave a fine Thanksgiving dinner. Everyone ate until they were ready to go and lie down, but they spent the evening singing and talking of Thanksgivings of other days, but this one was voted the most enjoyable one.

Teachers' Conference was well attended at Mrs. M. L. Woods and the next meeting will be at W. R. Bradley's this Wednesday.

Literary was not organized as was announced but a meeting held with Chas. Wood as president and Ralph Hazen, chairman, and it was voted to hold Literary. Another meeting will be called soon and an organization effected.

Mrs. Aspgren is holding down the Aspgren home while Oscar is working up at Solano on the mill.

Albert Driskill and family were kind enough to bring the minister out Sunday and although it was not Bradley's Sunday for church, he gave us a nice sermon. We all appreciate our new minister and appreciate the good work he is doing.

Mrs. L. A. Richardson came down Sunday from Dawson to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. Don Bradley.

Clarence Driskill is unable to be out yet and is reported not doing very well. We hope he will improve during the present week and be able to be out at church next Sunday.

Miss Clara Aytes spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Stella, who is teaching at Mosquero. Jay naturally accompanied Miss Clara to Mosquero as usual. We can't understand how he always happens to be along at the right time.

Grandmother Hazen is still on the sick list and was unable to attend Sunday school last Sunday.

Don't forget Sunday school and church next Sunday. Everyone come out and help to increase our attendance. We have a good preacher and you will appreciate his sermons.

Mrs. T. J. Heimann is visiting her mamma at Hayden this week and Tony is batching it on the ranch.

T. A. Turner and D. D. Hollister of Mills were in Roy Monday and called on the S-A force.

Mark Woods of Mosquero was trading with Roy merchants Tuesday.

The first person to enter the field of transporting articles of merchandise by express carrier was William Fred. He made his first trip from that city to New York on Feb. 23, 1833, having only one trunk and a bundle of books. He made his first trip from that city to New York on Feb. 23, 1833, having only one trunk and a bundle of books.

Misses Nira and Shirley Nutter entertained at dinner on Thanksgiving day at their home two miles east of town Miss Inez Cate, Dr. D. C. Daniel and Messrs. Wm. Roslington and Chas. R. Washbourne of Albuquerque.

Mrs. Ted Thompson is a patient in the Plumlee Hospital suffering from appendicitis. An operation will probably be necessary before her recovery.

A cold snap hit Roy Saturday night and was still in evidence Sunday and Monday and made the most of us wonder what we had done with our summer's wages.

Springer organized a Chamber of Commerce last Friday night. C. C. Staab of the Colfax County State Bank was elected president and Clay Reeves of the National as secretary. They expect to accomplish much good for Springer and vicinity.

MR. FRED WHITE SAYS, "DON'T IDLE BECAUSE YOU SEE ONLY ONE RAT" "I did. Pretty soon I found my cellar full. They ate my potatoes. After trying RAT-SNAP I got 5 dead rats. The rest later. They pass up the potatoes to eat RAT-SNAP." If there are rats around your place follow Mr. White's example. Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by Fairview Pharmacy and Roy Trading Co.
